How to sign up for Direct Debit & e-Invoicing

The ICCL supports the National Payments Plan initiative to phase out the usage of cheques. To promote the move to e-payments, the ICCL are offering a discount of 5% (capped at €25) to participant firms who sign up to Direct Debit online, and a further 5% if they sign up to e-Invoicing. A discount of up to a maximum of €25 for each sign up can be saved on your annual ICCL levy.

Once signed-up, the ICCL will issue your e-invoice 35 days in advance of the Direct Debit being collected. At any stage, you can cancel/amend your email or direct debit details either through your myICCL account or by notifying your Bank and/or the ICCL in the case of your Direct Debit.

Signing up is easy:

1. Register for or Login to a myICCL account

Go to the myICCL section of the ICCL website www.investorcompensation.ie and click on the Register / Login button as highlighted in the below screenshot:-

The screenshot shows the ICCL website header with the myICCL logo and a 'Register / Login' button highlighted with a red circle. The main content area features a welcome message and a 'Find out more about us' button. The footer contains three links: 'Discount on 2017/2018 Levy', 'Asset Management Trust Limited', and 'Custom House Capital Limited'.

New Users – insert your ICCL Reference number and click Search which will bring you to the Registration page below.

Existing Users – sign into your myICCL using your ICCL Reference number and your account password.

I am authorised to register the above named participant firm for e-invoicing with the ICCL, and I agree to the Terms and Conditions of e-invoicing.

Terms and Conditions of E-invoicing

- E-invoicing is available to ICCL participant firms who hold an active authorisation. By choosing E-invoicing from the ICCL, the participant firm agrees that it will receive all communications from the ICCL by email and it will no longer receive, in the ordinary course, paper communications from the ICCL.
- The onus is on the participant firm to ensure that contact details are correct.
- In order to register, amend, or, de-register for E-invoicing, the participant firm must notify the ICCL through the "myICCL" section of the ICCL website.
- While your details will be updated immediately, some existing system correspondence may crossover with changes requested and you should therefore allow up to 20 days for your change to be updated on our back-end systems.
- The participant firm must provide the ICCL with an up-to-date email address at all times when registered for e-invoicing. If you need to update your email address you can do this at any time simply accessing your "myICCL" account and selecting the "Edit E-invoicing details" option.
- As an "E-invoicing" participant firm you are still subject to the ICCL's standard terms and conditions.
- By agreeing to E-invoicing, you are not required to pay your levy on-line, you can continue to make payments by your chosen means. The ICCL encourages firms to avail of the on-line or direct debit payment methods.
- The "E-invoicing" service may be withdrawn by the ICCL at any time. We will notify you if this is the case. ICCL may suspend any or all of the E-invoicing service at any time for such reasons as we may consider necessary to allow us to inspect, maintain, review, repair or revise its website, systems or processes.
- The ICCL reserves the right to remove a participant firm from "E-invoicing" at any time if it does not adhere to the terms and conditions of E-invoicing.

Once registered you will receive an email confirming that e-Invoicing has been set-up. You can edit/cancel your e-Invoicing details at any point by logging into your myICCL account.

Terms & conditions

By signing this mandate form, you authorise (A) Investor Compensation Company DAC to send instructions to your bank to debit your account and (B) your bank to debit your account in accordance with the instruction from Investor Compensation Company DAC. The onus is on the participant firm to ensure bank details provided are correct. Should a direct debit be returned unpaid due to an error by the participant firm, you accept responsibility for any bank charges incurred by the ICCL. This amount may be added to the outstanding balance on the account. As part of your rights, you are entitled to a refund from your bank under the terms and conditions of your agreement with your bank. A refund must be claimed within 8 weeks starting from the date on which your account was debited. Your rights are explained in a statement that you can obtain from your bank.
